Sweden Wins the 2004 Women's Championship

With Karin Sjödin and Louise Stahle posting 2-under par 70's, Sweden overcame a two-stroke deficit to win the 2004 Women’s World Amateur Team Championship by three strokes at 9-under par 567 at Rio Mar Country Club in Rio Grande, Puerto Rico. It was the second-lowest team score in the championship’s history.

Canada and the USA shared second place at 6-under par 570. With an even-par 72 from Mary Ann Lapointe and a 1-over-par 73 from Laura Matthews, Canada could not overcome the Swedish surge, nor could the USA, with sub-par rounds from Paula Creamer (69), Sarah Harte (71) and Jane Park (71).

Sweden and the USA notched the day's best efforts at 4-under 140. All the contending teams played Rio Mar’s Ocean Course.

Canada had held the lead through the first three rounds and entered the final day two strokes ahead of Sweden and five ahead of the USA. The Canadian team was attempting to become the first start-to-finish winner since the USA in 1996.

However, Sweden picked up two strokes very quickly when Sjödin, known for her length off the tee, eagled the par-5 3rd hole by hitting a 4-iron to 3 feet and then making the putt to take the lead by 7-under.

"Karol is the longest hitter I’ve ever seen,” said 2004 U.S. Women’s Amateur champion Park. “She hits it a mile and once she gets on a roll, forget it.”

Sjödin, the 2004 NCAA Championship runner-up who plays for Oklahoma State University, was modest in her assessment. "I hit the ball well," she said. "That eagle was the key. That's when we took over.”

Stahle, the 2004 Ladies British Amateur champion, who plays at Arizona State University, and Sjödin then both birdied the par-5 9th to tie them with Canada at 9-under. The Swedes took the lead for good on the par-4 7th when Stahle logged another birdie for a 10-under total.

Sofie Andersson who plays at University of California at Berkeley, was Sweden’s third team member.

Sweden, which had a previous best finish of second in 1998, also matched the second biggest comeback by a winner in the final round of two strokes, which the USA did in 1970. They are the only nation to finish in the top 10 in all of the Women’s World Amateur Team Championships.

Canada, which finished second in 1996 and 1997, matched its best finish. The USA, which claims 13 victories, placed second in 1964 as well.

Although there is no official individual competition, Sjödin and 17-year-old Juljeta Granada of Paraguay, the 2004 U.S. Girls’ Junior champion, shot the best individual scores for the week at 8-under-par 280.

Japan, Korea and Chinese Taipei finished tied for fourth at 579, Colombia finished seventh at 581, Spain was eighth at 583, and Germany and New Zealand tied for ninth at 589.

United States of America Wins the 2004 Men's Championship

The USA won the Eisenhower Trophy for the third consecutive time, its 13th overall, at the weather-shortened World Amateur Team Championship with a 54-hole total of 25-under-par 407 at Rio Mar Country Club in Rio Grande, Puerto Rico.

Because of heavy rain and lightning, the International Golf Federation cancelled play for Sunday and based the Championship results on 54-hole scores.

The USA, the only nation to finish in the top 10 in all 24 Eisenhower Trophy competitions, finished nine strokes ahead of silver medalist Spain at 416 and 10 strokes clear of bronze medalist Sweden at 417.

The USA team members, all collegiate All-Americans, were Spencer Levin, 20, Ryan Moore, 21, and Lee Williams, 22.

“These three individuals are uniquely diverse persons but to see them come together as a team in this event was very gratifying,” said USA captain Trey Holland. “I will follow their careers as long as there is breath in me.”

In true team fashion, each USA player contributed:

Moore (65) and Williams (67), 2003 USA Walker Cup teammates, sparked the team with a 12-under-par start for a four-stroke lead after the first round; Moore, the 2004 U.S. Amateur, U.S. Amateur Public Links, NCAA individual and Western Amateur champion, shot 67 to combine with Levin’s 69 in Round 2 and increase their advantage to eight strokes; and Levin, who won five amateur events in 2004 and was the low amateur at the 2004 U.S. Open, shot a 67 to go along with Moore’s 72 in the third round to add another stroke to their lead.

The Americans became the 12th team to lead the event from start to finish. The USA also won four consecutive titles from 1968 through 1974 and three consecutive from 1978 through 1982.

Heavy rain, along with lightning in the area, forced a suspension of play in the mid-morning. The IGF, trying to complete as many holes as possible, made a cut at the top 10 teams and ties and those 11 teams were to play only the inward nine of the Ocean Course.

However, more poor weather conditions followed in the afternoon and the resumption of play was suspended and ultimately cancelled.

“Every team out there wanted to play (Sunday),” said Holland of having the final round cancelled with his team holding a nine-stroke lead. “I don’t think any lead is safe in this event.”

Although there is no official IGF recognition, Moore was the lowest individual, shooting 12-under-par 204 through 54 holes. He was followed closely by teammate Levin, who shot 206.

Rounding out the top 10 were Canada, Italy and Switzerland sharing fourth at 422, Wales in seventh at 423, England and Malaysia tied for eighth at 424 and Denmark and Germany tied for 10th at 425. Host Puerto Rico finished tied for 37th at 445.

HISTORY OF THE INTERNATIONAL GOLF FEDERATION

Dilemma, but a good one:
By the 1950s, the United States Golf Association (USGA) has received too many invitations for international matches against individual countries to be able to accept them all.

January, 1958:
The USGA Executive Committee, discussing yet another of these generous invitations – this time from Japan – proposes the establishment of an international team competition so that all countries can participate in these types of events.

March, 1958:
Representatives from the USGA travel to Scotland to discuss the idea with representatives of The Royal & Ancient Golf Club of St. Andrews, Scotland (The R&A). The concept is enthusiastically received.

May, 1958:
Representatives from 35 countries meet in Washington, D.C., USA, hosted by the USGA and The R&A, to establish the World Amateur Golf Council (WAGC), so that it may conduct the World Amateur Team Championship. The meeting is arranged through cooperation with Pan American Airlines and the U.S. Department of State, and the trips of all attendees are funded by an anonymous group, the Friends of American Golf. President Dwight D. Eisenhower welcomes the group in the White House Rose Garden. The Council is begun with 32 Member Organizations and governing Articles are established.

October, 1958:
The first Championship is hosted by The R&A on the Old Course at St. Andrews, Scotland. The Australian team defeats the American team in an 18-hole play-off by two strokes. Bob Jones is the Captain of the USA team.

September, 1960:
The second Championship is hosted by the USGA at Merion Golf Club (East Course) in Ardmore, Pennsylvania. Although the original 1958 Delegates envisioned that the Championship would be a match play by this year, it has remained at stroke play through the present day. Jack Nicklaus’s 72-hole record of 269 at Merion GC still stands today.

1964:
The French Golf Federation proposes that the USA Curtis Cup Team stop in France for an informal match following the Curtis Cup Match in Wales. The USGA accepts the invitation but also suggests inviting other nations to create a women’s counterpart to the World Amateur Team Championship. The French are delighted to do so.

Vicomtesse de Saint Sauveur (known to many as Lally Segard), of France, and Mrs. Henri Prunaret, of the United States, planned the Championship.

October, 1964:
The French Golf Federation holds the first Women’s World Amateur Team Championship. Twenty-five teams compete. France beats the USA by one stroke.

With sincere thanks to France, it is unanimously agreed that the World Amateur Golf Council will hereafter conduct the Women’s event.

2003:
The World Amateur Golf Council changes its name to the International Golf Federation.
