

WHEREABOUTS FAQ

What Information is Required?

- Overnight Accommodations Entry: The full address of the place where you will be staying overnight (e.g., home, temporary lodgings, hotel, etc);
- 60 Min Time Slot: One specific 60-minute time slot between 5am and 11pm each day where you will be available and accessible for Testing at a specific location
- Regular Activities: The name and address of each location where you will practice, train, or conduct any other regular activity, as well as the usual timeframes for such regular activities; and
- Competition Entry: Your Competition schedule, including the name and address of each location where you are scheduled to compete during this period and the date(s) on which you are scheduled to compete at such location(s)

*There is an exception that can be applied regarding the requirement to provide the 60-minute time slot In-Competition as follows:

From 6 May - 23 July: You are NOT required to specify a daily 60-minute time slot and specific location where you will be available and accessible for Testing during the In-Competition period. Therefore, if you miss the cut, you must update your whereabouts, including the daily 60-minute time slot, from midnight of the day you finish playing until your next scheduled In-Competition period, as you are now deemed to be Out of Competition.

From 24 July - 21 August: You are required to specify a daily 60-minute time slot and specific location where you will be available and accessible for Testing also during the In-Competition period.

I don't know where I will be for the entire 6 May – 21 August period. How am I supposed to complete my whereabouts?

It is acknowledged that you may not know, at this time, precisely what your whereabouts will be for each day in the 6 May - 21 August time period and are therefore unable to enter the four entries as outlined above. In this case, you should provide the best information you have at the time and then update it regularly as soon as more details become available or are confirmed.

However, at minimum you are required to enter an overnight accommodations entry every day during the time period and a 60 min timeslot.

What is the Overnight Accommodations Entry?

Overnight accommodation is defined as the place where the athlete will sleep at the end of a given day. This may include your home, a hotel during competitions or vacations, or temporary lodging like a friend's house.

As an example, if you plan to compete in a tournament and do not have the exact address of a hotel where you will be staying, fill it in with the best of your knowledge. The label on that entry could be "Official Hotel during Tournament Name" and address details for that entry would be "TBD" with correct City and Country included. If you enter whereabouts in this manner, please make sure you update the entries when the address details are confirmed as you are held accountable for providing accurate and complete whereabouts information.

If you are not competing but still do not know the exact place where you will be staying every night, enter your primary residence as your overnight accommodations entry, attach a 60 min timeslot and update that information when plans are confirmed.

Note: Set a daily reminder or schedule a day of the week each week (or a couple days each week) to review your whereabouts submissions for the upcoming day/week and update as needed.

What is a Regular Activities Entry?

Regular Activities entries are intended for regular routines like work, school and practice. However, an activity is only 'regular' if it is conducted as part of a standard schedule or practice. For example, if you practice every Friday from 08:00 - 10:00 at a particular location, this qualifies as a regular activity and should be disclosed in your whereabouts. However, if the day on which you practice varies from week to week, this does not need to be disclosed as a 'regular activity.' In this case, you would NOT enter a regular activity.

Note: Please keep in mind that if you enter a regular activity entry, you should always include a start and end time for that entry so that it does not default to "All Day"

What is the 60 Min Time Slot Entry?

You are required to provide, for each day of the time period, one specific 60-minute time slot between 05:00 and 23:00 where you will be available and accessible for testing at a specific location. To reduce the likelihood of inadvertently receiving a missed test, it is suggested that you identify your 60-minute time slot at a time and place that is a predictable part of your day and less likely to change (e.g. when and where you wake-up, go to bed etc.).

If your plans change and you will no longer be at that location at the time you indicated, you must update your information to identify a new time slot and/or a new location before the original slot comes into effect. You may do this up to one minute before the 60-minute time slot. Although you are not obliged to account for your whereabouts every hour of the day, if a Doping Control Officer fails to locate you at this designated 60-minute location, a missed test may be declared against you.

What is a Competition Entry?

A Competition entry should include the name of the tournament as the label of that entry. The golf course address details with city and country should be included on that entry as well. The Competitions entry will default to All Day. The Competition entries should only be entered on days that you are competing in a tournament (e.g. Wed – Pro-Am, Thursday - Sunday).

Note: Anticipate that you will make the cut and adjust the dates at that time, if necessary.

Do I have to enter a Travel Entry?

You are only required to enter a travel entry if you are unable to identify a 60-minute time slot or overnight accommodations entry due to extended travelling circumstances that would preclude you from providing that information.

How does the ADAMS Mobile App work?

The mobile application is only available for the athlete user accounts. It is not available for the Agent Athlete user accounts.

NOTE: Initial submission of whereabouts must be submitted online. Only updates and additions to whereabouts can be made using the mobile app AFTER the initial submission of whereabouts has been submitted.
