

IGF ANTI DISCRIMINATION POLICY

Version: November 2016
International Golf Federation / Executive Director's Office

POLICY DESCRIPTION

The IGF endorses diversity, supports equal rights, and does not advocate, support or practice discrimination based on race, religion, age, national origin, language, sex, sexual orientation, or mental or physical handicap, whether covered by applicable legislation or not, except where affirmative action may be required to redress individual or social handicaps of people from disadvantaged groups.

Purpose

This document sets out

- The IGF's policy against such discrimination
- The governance structures, responsibilities and processes that have been established to give effect to that policy.

Policy

The IGF does not advocate, support or practice discrimination based on race, religion, age, national origin, language, sex, sexual orientation, or mental or physical handicap or any other personal attribute protected by law, except where affirmative action may be required to redress individual or social handicaps. The IGF will make all reasonable accommodations to allow people who experience difficulties in their dealings with the organisation to benefit equally from its work.

Responsibilities

1. The IGF Board will:

- Regularly review the leadership and commitment given to eliminating discrimination through active promotion of the organisation's Anti-Discrimination Policy.
- Monitor performance by way of periodic management reports and assurances.

2. The Executive Director will:

- Ensure that:
 - the organisation's practices and processes incorporate precautions against discrimination in such areas as hiring, client selection, and program delivery;
 - Reasonable accommodations are made to allow diverse groups to access benefits provided by the organisation;
 - Where appropriate, weight is given to the culture and experiences of individuals from disadvantaged groups.
- Where appropriate, delegate responsibility for compliance to officers with responsibility for particular sections.
- Oversee the performance of subordinate officers in these matters.
- Review and report to the Board, as appropriate, on the effectiveness of the management systems established to remove discrimination.
- Analyse material breaches and identified compliance system weaknesses for systematic trends and ensure that any adverse trends are addressed.
- Promote a culture of effective policy compliance across the organisation.

3. All IGF officials and any persons or organisation belonging in any capacity whatsoever to the IGF or to one of its affiliated members, the Organising Committee of the IGF Competitions and Tournament Support Personnel and Officials (the Golf Parties) will:

- Ensure that they are aware of the organisation's policy against discrimination;
- Not act in a manner that would be considered to be discriminatory pursuant to this policy or any applicable legislation;

- Where appropriate, suggest ways in which practices, systems and procedures could be improved so as to reduce the likelihood of discrimination occurring.

“Tournament Support Personnel” refers to any tournament director, owner, operator, employee, volunteer, referee, technical official, IGF employee, and any of their respective agents, delegates, commissioners, or contractors, and any similarly situated person at an Olympic Golf Competition and any other person who receives accreditation for an Olympic Golf Competition at the request of Tournament Support Personnel.

Processes

The Executive Director will initially review the organisation's procedures in all areas to ensure that these are in accordance with the principles expressed in this policy, and will report to the Board on this matter. The Executive Director will review any changes to the organisation's procedures in all areas to ensure that these are in accordance with the principles expressed in this policy. The Golf Parties will follow these procedures.
